

Demographics

“Highly Diverse. Highly Talented.” is a statement we proudly stand by in Athens. Our diversity can be seen in our K-12 education working daily to build a community and pool of talent that matches your needs and the changing profile the world around us. Benefiting from the wealth of international programs through our local universities, our department is happy to connect you with support for your global business needs.