

Taxes & Incentives

Athens-Clarke County is an active and growing environment that is inviting for businesses, industries, and makers of all sizes. The Athens-Clarke County Economic Development Department works closely with the State of Georgia and regional workforce development partners to ensure that all new information and resources in regards to taxes, rebates and incentives are easily available. Our goal is to provide as many applicable tools as possible for our existing industries and new industries so that Athens, Georgia may continue to thrive.