

Bioscience

BioScience in Athens, Georgia

The Life Cycle of the BioScience Workforce in Athens, Georgia.

BioScience Employment

Life Scientists	1,034
Life, Physical & Social Science Techs	1,122
Engineers	845
Physical Scientists	397

K-12

Clarke County School Districts Strategic Plan includes working with local industries to improve academic performance.

Athens Community Career Academy prioritizes work based learning & has created pathways for learning that reflect the needs of our community.

Higher Education

The University of Georgia has grown into a research and innovation powerhouse with programs that include the New Materials Instituted and onsite incubation space.

Athens Technical College caters to the BioScience community with programs including - Agricultural Science, BioScience Health, Information Management, Healthcare Science & More.

Other local collegiate institutions include Piedmont College and the University of North Georgia, Oconee Campus.

Apprenticeships, Co-Ops, Internships & Graduate Education

Internships with Athens Community Career Academy & the Great Promise Partnership allow work based learning to being in High School.

Custom Internships & Co-Ops with the University of Georgia College of Engineering, & Athens Technical Career Services.

Masters & Doctoral programs in Biology, Biomedical Engineering, Chemistry & Pharmaceutical fields available at The University of Georgia